

DCMYC 2020 Season Standings, July through December

RG-65 Race at Tingley on July 4, 2020, Race #13

Tingley was pretty quiet generally. There was parking available next to the Pond most of the day.

I don't remember anyone passing through our area. Mark became the acting RD; defined a heat as two laps starting south. Mercy provided verbal 10 second interval marks to time = 10 then one second to time = 0 and we were off drifting around the pond. Racing was complete after three heats. We all left indicating an intention to do it again in two weeks.

The next RG RD is unknown."

RG-65 Race at Tingley on July 18, 2020, Race #14

Winds ranged from very light to moderate with direction periodically shifting between southwest and southeast. Peter Eschman served as sailing RD and earned a fleet finish of 2nd place. Temperatures were on the toasty to well-done side. Earl provided a shade shelter which helped make the heat more bearable.

The first heat was sailed starting south, then southwest green, southeast yellow then finish, with all marks to port. Subsequent heats started with the same first two marks, but added rounding the east white mark to port, then southwest green, then south center orange, then finish. We took a 5 minute hydration breaks between each heat, and sailed straight through, with no lunch break. Mark and Pete sailed DF-65 class while the others sailed within the umbrellaRG-65 class.

Greg Kelly sailed his DF-95 along with us for the first few heats, and was careful to avoid interfering with anyone who was officially racing. After six heats, three folks had had enough, so official racing stopped at that point. After discarding one worst finish, Bill and Pete were tied on points for first place, but Bill won the tie-break to sew up a first for the event. Kieth and Pete sailed two more practice heats with each finishing first in one of the two heats. Those heats took us to the 2 PM event finish time.

RG-65 Race at Tingley on August 1, 2020, Race #15

Mark Sutton was the RD for practice racing for all classes on Saturday. Start time was NOON owing to the wind forecast. Four skippers brought what they had.

NOTE Practice results are recorded at the end of the weekly results.

S1M Race at Tingley on July 11, 2020, Race #12

We cancelled the Soling event for 11-July because we didn't have enough boats to get three on the race course. Many folks are not willing to try to race in the hot July temps we are experiencing, especially when we will all need to wear a mask.

We are optimistic that we may be able to race 25-July, and will continue to try in August.

As a result, all DCMYC members are welcome at the pond on Saturday, but Earl wants me to remind you that he says temps are predicted to reach a high of 107 on Saturday, so plan accordingly.

S1M Race at Tingley on July 25, 2020, Race #13

We cancelled the Soling event for 25-July because we didn't have enough boats to get three on the race course.
