The Saturday Soling races were fun with a lot of close competition. Gifford Hawn was at the pond sailing his 65 and agreed to sail my spare Soling. He did quite well and Martin and I very much appreciated his jumping in and competing to give us an official event. Martin was as sharp as ever and did the best in the series. The winds were light and some times non-existent which added a lot of challenge to mark roundings.

The race was abandoned due to hazardous driving conditions.

S1M Race 2 2024-FEB-03

RD: Peter Eschman

We had 5 Solings at the pond on Saturday. Peter Eschman (671), Martin Rexius (#79), Bill Rowen (#596), and Mike Wilson (01 & 77). Mike invited a friend to sail his second boat. Conditions at the pond were heavy air most of the time, but strong gusts were impossible to sail and had the potential to be quite destructive -- at these times the air was brown with dust blowing off the dirt parking lot to the north of the pond. During an early test sail, one interval of heavy gusts caused 01 to lose its rig, which cracked the mast base where the metal fitting seats between the mast base and in the holder on the deck. This damage put 01 out of commission. Mike's second boat (77) developed an electrical problem and was also out of commission. Bill was able to do a bit of somewhat hair-raising test sailing, and Martin sailed for a bit as well. Much of the time, the conditions were OK for heavy air sailing, but the unpredictable gust intervals lasting for a minute or two were dangerous. After conferring pond-side, we decided that discretion was the better part of valor, and called off racing for the day.
