

DCMYC 2020 Season Standings, January through June

RG-65 Race at Tingley on January 4, 2020, Race #1

The first race of 2019 was cancelled due to ice on the pond. This year (2020) there was no ice, the sun was shining, the temperature was reasonable; it was a great day to sail, if you liked very light wind. The last time Brian sailed was in April, but he still remembers how with the given conditions. Buzz sailed his DF65 with a swing rig configuration. Earl Boebert served as non-sailing RD earning (2) points for season standing.

Skippers competing within the Dragon Force 65 restricted class rules are indicated in Italics.

Fleet Sailing at Tingley on June 13, 2020, Not Official Race

Today was the first sailing at Tingley after the facility closure for virus quarantine. The “racing” was evaluating timed starting intervals for maintaining social distance requirements. Details about the suggested options are in the club email postings.

RG-65 Race at Tingley on June, 2020, Race #6

Earl Boebert served as non-sailing RD earning his actual finishing position points (1) for season standings. First three and then four participants. It was hot. Wind was puffy and swirling but there were few periods of absolutely dead air. We agreed to sail straight through to 1:30 owing to the heat. We also agreed to sail two lap heats to minimize the number of starts and corresponding difficulty with social distancing. We also agreed on one minute start times because I had to call the starts manually. We sailed five two-lap heats, the equivalent of eight or so one-lap heats.

I would recommend that RDs go to two-lap heats whenever possible to minimize the temptation to crowd together during starts.

We moved the north boundary to the far north end of the walkway. This reduced the number of times we had to wave people away, but there were a couple jerks (without masks, natch) who ignored the sign. One did turn around finally, and another walzed through with his kid like he owned the place. So we need to be alert for our own protection.

Skippers competing within the Dragon Force 65 restricted class rules are indicated in Italics.

Buzz served as sailing RD. All heats were one lap starting south; port orange, yellow marks; north to starboard orange, yellow marks finish south. Greg attempted to start but his boat wasn't cooperating. After multiple retrievals from the far shore it was decided the antenna on the bottom of the hull was the culprit.
